 For this God that hast bereft us

Perry County Clerk
New Bloomfield, Pa.

Dear Sir:

In compiling a research study on my family tree, I find that I need a copy of the will made by my ancestor - JOHN GEORGE CLAY.

All the information that I have about him is that he was born 1777 and died 1863 in Perry County. He is buried at Fio Forge, 2½ miles from his farm and was laid to rest between two wives.

What will be the charge for making a transcript photostat copy of the will?

Do you find a deed mentioning the above?

Any information you can find for me will be very helpful and deeply appreciated. I will be only too happy to pay any reasonable fees for this search.

Can you find any records of the son of this ancestor - JACOB CLAY who was born 1811 near Petersburg, Pa.? Records of birth, death, marriage, names of wives, wills, deeds, probate, etc. in Perry County are most necessary.

Hoping for an early reply, I remain -

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. Robert I. Clark

I enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope for your reply.
